

5.2 PARTICIPLE PLACEMENT

Joe found a dollar walking his dog.

Austin looked both ways to avoid the bus stepping into the street.

misplaced participle- a participle phrase that seems to modify the wrong word or more than one word in a sentence.

dangling participle - a participle does not appear to modify any word in the sentence.

Covered with glaze and baked in the kiln, Logan felt disappointed.

Logan felt disappointed with the vase, covered with glaze and baked in the kiln.

Sep 15-9:53 AM