

1. The government leaders expressed their desire, to build a magnificent capital for the new country.
2. The final choice, to build a city between Virginia and Maryland, was made in the 1790's.
3. Pierre L'Enfant's task, to design the capital of the United States, was given to him by George Washington.
4. L'Enfant had a vision, to create a city of wide avenues and vistas.
5. His original plan, to have three separate areas for the three branches of government, was not implemented.
6. Pennsylvania Avenue, a wide boulevard connecting the Capitol Building to the White House, had a special purpose, to serve as a place for ceremonial purposes.